Re: Jane Doe v. Halstead Property, LLC et al, Civil Docket No. 1:18-cv-05436-AKH

Honorable Sir:

This office represents Plaintiff Jane Doe in the above-referenced action. I respectfully request an enlargement of time to file Plaintiff's opposition papers to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment which was filed on February 14, 2020 pursuant to the Court's January 10, 2020 scheduling order. Plaintiff's opposition papers are due today, March 13, 2020. I understand that the Court's Individual Rule 1(D) requires the parties to make such a request on 48 hours' notice before the scheduled deadline. However, I request an extension of time to file Plaintiff's opposition papers to Tuesday, March 17, 2020, due to my office being unexpectedly short staffed as a result of apparent self-quarantining in connection with Coronavirus.

We have conferred with Defendants' counsel who consents to this adjournment and the parties mutually request to enlarge Defendants' time to file their reply papers from Monday, March 23, 2020 to Friday, April 3, 2020, with a new motion return date of Monday, April 6, 2020.

This is the first time an adjournment has been requested in connection with this motion practice. There are no other scheduled appearances or filing deadlines in this action other than these referenced above.

Please be advised we are also now lifting the pseudo-anonymity of Plaintiff to release her actual identity, Geannetta Jackson.
